INFORMÁCIE O PROGRAMOCH

HOW TO COPE WITH MONSTERS

Drawing, folding, gluing - a workshop dedicated to the combination of drawing and collage from various materials, i.e. paper, textile and materials/items occurring naturally. The kids will tinker one of the little monsters.

Author - I. Abrahamfyová

(For kids from the age of 6)

From 2D to 3D

This is the way how illustrations of children come to life. The workshops will be run by the Slovak illustrator Svetozár Košícký.

(For kids from the age of 7)

SELF-PORTRAIT

Familiarising the kids with one of the artistic fields, i.e. CUBISM. Using geometrical shapes, the kids will compose their own self-portrait.

(For kids aged 6+)

STINA IS NO LONGER AFRAID

The girl Stína fears winter and cold, but what she has to overcome is the fear (and not the winter) and learn that things are easier to change with the help of friends.

What follows is joyful and pleasant as a "cup of hot chocolate".

This subtle winter-story by Lani Yamamoto by the Slniečkovo ("Sun-Village") publishing house will be the starting point for the playing and creativity of the smallest BIBIANA visitors (accompanied by an adult).

(For kids aged 18+ months)

EXHIBITIONS IN BIBIANA

CINEMA FROM BENEATH THE PILLOW

Exhibition by Petra Štefanková, who studied graphic-design at the Academy of Fine Arts (VŠVU) in Bratislava and film- & TV-graphics in Prague. Since 2006, she has been living and working in London and (as the only Slovak) she is also member of the Royal Society for the Encouragement of Arts. Most of the exhibit-works are completely new — created 2017. She will introduce several series of various artistic approaches, corresponding with her style-variability.

In this exhibition you will learn how movies do project themselves into the dreams of illustrator Petra Štefanková.

When: January 11, 2018 - February 11, 2018

BOO, BOOH !!! OR THE SCARRIEST SLOVAK MONSTERS

Even such a seemingly scary topic can be a way of learning about the traditional culture of one's own nation and uncovering its moral legacy. Interactive exhibition, inspired by a book by Katarína Nádaská, Ján Michálek and illustrator Svetozár Košický: Devils, witches and other monsters, represents a return to the scary figures from Slovak fairytales and fables as a contrast to the Halloween monsters. The visitors will meet a SNAKE – the good guardian of the home, a NIGHTMARE and evil elf HOBGOBLIN, the mill is inhabited by a WATERMAN and WATER NYMPHS and in the underworld a gang of DEVILS is sitting around a fire with Devil's goulash in the pot. Children can sit on a GRAGON, meet the LIGHT BEARERS, as well as the witch GRGALICA and under the floor they can watch the industrious and tenacious DWARFS.

Idea and screenplay – I. Abrahamfyová; graphical and stage design – O. Slivka, story – K. Nádaská

When: October 20, 2017 – April 1, 2018

ISMS AND ROOMS

The most immediate way to get to like art is to understand it. The simplest way to understand art is experiencing it. This is the goal of our exhibition that presents a review of the key visual art streams of the end of the 19th and the beginning of the 20th centuries. Separate "rooms" are dedicated to various "isms" such as cubism, impressionism, surrealism, expressionism and Dadaism. Children can enter the rooms and studios and become a part of the art production of the respective periods. A wardrobe as Degas's ballet studio, a cubistic mirror and a surrealistic bed-airship certainly are an attractive invitation – and not just for children.

Idea and script – A. Paulínyová; Graphics and stage design – B. Peuch; Dramaturgy – S. Broadhurst Petrovická

When: August 24, 2017 – February 4, 2018
